

ID SIGNSYSTEMS - INTERNAL JOB POSTING

October 31, 2019

Position: Regional Architectural Sign Sales/Account Representative

ID Signsystems is a leading architectural sign manufacturer based in Rochester NY. The company is successful and growing rapidly. As part of its expansion plans we are looking to add regional sales executives in Rochester and its surrounding markets Buffalo and Syracuse.

We have an immediate opportunity for an experienced sales person with a proven track record of sales in architectural products, signage preferred, and a history of selling to healthcare signage markets. The successful candidate should be self-motivated, understand and embrace great design, be a natural project manager, and have drawing skills. The ability to interface with planning departments and construction is a plus.

Please respond initially with your resume and we will respond directly to suitable candidates.

Excellent basic and commission package with bonus scheme, 401K and Health Benefits
